Postal Pushing Out.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, Va., March 8.—There is a feeling in railway circles here that the Postal Telegraph Company will soon begin the construction of a line into the southwestern portion of Virginia, touching some of the best towns in that section of the State. It is believed the company will secure a right of way over the route of the Tidewater Railway, and that the construction of the line will be commenced in a few months. The company is just about to start the erection of two new copper circuits between Washington and Lynchburg.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS IN PETERSBURG

A Special Committee to Raise Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

EARLY CLOSING ORDINANCE

Rev. N. Asbury Christian's House Quarantined on Account of Smallpox.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, Va., March 8.—A. D. Hamilton, E. C. Kent, T. B. Machin, J. H. Gray and Isadore Reinach have been appointed by Chairman R. B. Davis, of the recent public meeting to consider Young Men's Christian Association matters, the committee of five to solicit a public subscription of fifteen thousand dollars for the general purposes of the association, and to report at the end of thirty days, as provided by C. T. Law's resolutions, adopted at that meeting, which empowered Mr. Davis to appoint such a committee and give to each contributor, for each dollar subscribed, one vote at a public meeting to decide the question of selling the Y. M. C. A. building.

It is not likely that any action will be taken by the Petersburg board of the majority report of the committee investigating the Corporation Commission. No meeting has been called, and so far as is known none will be held. Judge Crump's charges are absolutely unquestioned by his acquaintances in this city, and opinions favoring his resignation are not numerous.

At a special session of the Mayor's Court this afternoon, Justice Butler, sitting alone, ordered the arrest of a negro, who stole a ring from a drunken countryman while both were in the police station, was sent on to the grand jury. The ring was found in the pocket of the fence, and the stolen ring was recovered from another prisoner, to whom the negro entrusted the jewel.

A colored servant employed at the home of Rev. W. Ashby Christian, pastor of High Street Methodist Church, has developed smallpox, and Mr. Christian's residence has been quarantined.

Councilman James H. Gray, who presented the ordinance providing that the bars shall remain closed from 11 at night until 1 o'clock in the morning, announced that the closing hours mentioned are by no means what he considers equal to the necessities of the case, nor the penalties in keeping the bars closed, and that he wished to offer a moderate ordinance, and after consultation with friends in and out of the Council, decided that the present ordinance be amended to the temperance element of this community would endorse. The ordinance provides a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for the first offense, and succeeding fines of not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each additional offense.

BRONZE VASES. A Handsome Gift to St. John's Episcopal Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WEST POINT, Va., March 8.—St. John's Episcopal church, which has been recently remodeled, enlarged and beautified, has had presented to it by Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Smith, of Portsmouth, Va., two handsome bronze vases and the desk in memory of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. William K. Smith, who died two years ago. Dr. William K. Gatewood also presented an ornamental cross in memory of his little son, Thomas McCandless Gatewood. Rev. Charles Holt is the present pastor.

Sale of Fine Horses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DUBLIN, Va., March 8.—The sale of pure-bred French and French coach horses by W. J. Jordan and Son at Newbern yesterday was well-attended. Both Virginia and North Carolina being represented. Prices in the sale were satisfactory, though Colonel Jordan in two or three cases considered them not as high as they should have been. At all as much as they should have been. The three-year-old Percheron stallion "Togo" at $1,000, while Walter W. Flytle, Wilkesboro, N. C., secured a 3-year-old Archie, of the same breed, at $800.

Of the French coach horses, the highest bid was $700 for Grande, 3-year-old sorrel stallion, at which bid he was drawn from sale. The entire sale footed up about $5,500.
